Update on Measure D

By Joe Casey

This month I spent some time with one of our newly elected Walnut Creek City Council Member's, Kish Rajan, to talk about Measure D, and what outcomes he predicted if the measure didn't pass. The first thing I learned is that Kish is a very vocal supporter of the measure. He and his wife Evie live locally, and all family members are very active in the Woodlands Swim Club and Continental Little League. Kish was elected to his first term as City Councilor in the historic elections that took place this last November.

I asked Kish if he could put some thoughts down on Measure D to share with the Woodlands community, and he actually pointed me to a recent communication he made to a number of constituents on the very issue. Here is the majority of what Kish stated in his message. I believe the words speak for themselves:

From City Council Member Kish Rajan

Last week I was pleased to personally endorse Measure D - a critically needed local funding measure to support our schools in the Mt. Diablo School District. And I am very pleased that this week, the entire City Council unanimously endorsed the measure.

California's schools are in crisis and unfortunately there is no end in sight to the structural budget challenges in Sacramento. As such, school districts like ours all across the state, including our neighboring school districts in Walnut Creek, Orinda, Lafayette, San Ramon Valley, and others have each implemented parcel taxes to support their local community schools. We must follow suit, take matters in to our own hands, and pass a local funding measure of our own.

The key facts to bear in mind are:

- Sacramento is broken and we cannot afford to wait any longer for legislators to make decisions that are in the best interests of our children
- Many of our neighboring school districts have already implemented parcel taxes and are seeing the direct benefits of this local funding. It time for us to take this critical step
- We know that without these funds our kids' teachers, librarians, counselors, music, sports and other key programs are at severe risk
- The district is committed to transparency and accountability for how the money is invested in our kids' education

Please get involved. Our campaign headquarters are located at 2280 Diamond Blvd, Suite 350 in Concord, and my email is kishforwccouncil@gmail.com

If each of us gets actively involved in this campaign, recruits our friends and neighbors, and mobilize our community in support of our kids, our future, we will get this done! I look forward to working with you toward making it happen.

The election is Tuesday, May 19th. Don't forget to get out and vote!

Want to Write Something?

The Woodlands newsletter provides a community service by keeping neighborhood residents informed about issues and events of interest. We encourage Woodlands residents to submit articles for the newsletter and we regularly receive articles that are published in the newsletter.

If you would like to contribute an article, please contact us and we will be happy to work with you to help get it edited and published. Our publication guidelines are relatively simple – topics should be of interest to Woodlands residents, the newsletter can not be used as a forum to air issues between individuals, and articles may need to be edited to fit within available space (typical length is 200 words or less). To meet our publication schedule for a monthly newsletter, we have established a closing date of the 10th of each month. To the extent that space is available, articles received and ready for print by the 10th of the month will be published in the next version of the newsletter.

We appreciate your help in making the newsletter as informative, useful, and relevant to Woodlands residents. To submit an article, please write to woodlandsassn@yahoo.com.

Frogs at Bayberry Pond

By Lesley Hunt, WCOSF Bayberry Project Leader

The February rains finally filled Bayberry Pond. This had a number of advantages for us – we could see where the high water line was and judge where to plant willows, cottonwoods, and other things. It also told us that the path we laid out would be under water part of the winter!

Best of all, we found we had Pacific tree frogs and western toads. One rainy day while we were checking for silt, we watched them mating. In a couple of weeks, the pond was full of tadpoles. You can still see them if you're patient.

A pair of mallards checked out the pond but ultimately decided against setting up housekeeping, probably because there wasn't enough food to support a nest. Maybe next year.

On March 16 the Lindsay Museum brought two classes of home-schooled children to Bayberry Pond for a field trip. While the kids were watching the tadpoles, an adult Pacific Tree Frog came right up to them and posed for this photo. Later they participated in the restoration work by putting sticks around the grass to shade the roots.

We have finished planting for the year and are now weeding and otherwise preparing our plants for getting through the summer. We will be watering once a month until the rains begin again. Check www.wcosf.org for updates and details until then.
